

Californians will decide if they want to legalize Marijuana in November YOUR STATE IS NEXT

As California goes, so does the rest of the country.

This November, Californians will go to the polls and decide if they want to legalize the use and cultivation of Marijuana. Your state could be next. Bus drivers, forklift operators, hospital technicians, crossing guards who might be stoned could be coming to your community.

Sign the petition and stop the legalization of Marijuana in California.

Public Safety First has been formed to oppose Proposition 19, a November initiative legalizing Marijuana sales and cultivation of Marijuana in California. Public Safety First, which is sponsoring the Marijuana opposition campaign, also launched the opposition campaign in 2008 to California Proposition 5, dubbed the "Drug Dealers Bill of Rights" by opponents. Proposition 5 was soundly defeated despite having a large advantage in resources and in early polling. Oppose Proposition 19. The public doesn't need to be exposed to the dangers of pot.
